

Dr CP van der Vyver - 14th International Congress on Educational Administration

One of the members of the EDULEAD- Niche, Dr CP van der Vyver attended the 14th International Congress on Educational Administration which was held in Çeşme, Turkey. Dr van der Vyver is part of the International Study of Teacher Leadership (ISTL) which is led by Professor Charlie Webber from Mount Royal University, Calgary, Canada. The members of the team doing research in ISTL, represents 10 countries, including: Australia, Canada, China, Colombia, Mexico, Romania, South Africa, Spain, Tanzania and Turkey. The ISTL team met at the conference to discuss collaboration in the ISTL project. The different members making up the ISTL team presented papers, focusing on Teacher leadership, in three symposia at the conference. Dr van der Vyver presented a paper: “Teacher leadership in South Africa: Understanding the concept and examining its potential value for the educational context” in Symposium 1 with the theme: Why investigate teacher leadership? The paper was co-authored by two other members of EDULEAD also taking part in the ISTL study, Dr Molly van Niekerk and Dr Jan Khumalo.

Dr van der Vyver with other members of the ISTL team.

