Die nuutste SDL nuus...

Prof Per Bergamin visited the Research Focus Area Self-Directed Learning (SDL). He is Professor for Didactics in Distance Education and E-Learning at the Swiss Distance University of Applied Sciences (FFHS). He is also director of the Institute for Research in Open-, Distance- and eLearning (IFeL) and from 2016 also he holds the UNESCO Chair on personalised and adaptive Distance Education. SDL and specifically the subarea Blended Learning collaborates on several projects regarding technologies in education and FFHS currently hosts 3 Fellows from SDL in Switzerland.

Prof Per Bergamin het die Navorsingsfokusarea Selfgerigte Leer (SDL) besoek. Hy is professor in Didaktiek in Afstandsonderrig en E-leer by die Switserse Afstandswetenskappe. Hy is ook direkteur van die Instituut vir Navorsing in Oop-, Afstands- en E-leer (IFeL) en vanaf 2016 hou hy ook die UNESCO-voorsitter op persoonlike en aanpasbare afstandsonderrig. SDL en spesifiek die subarea Blended Learning werk saam oor verskeie projekte rakende tegnologie in die onderwys en FFHS gasheer tans 3 genote van SDL in Switserland.
