

SDL Student Seminar - 12 and 13 March

It is important to speak about your own research.
-Prof Elsa
Mentz

Last week the members of SDL officially welcomed the new master's-degree and PhD students to the SDL community of practice. Students had the opportunity to present their research ideas to their supervisors and other members of SDL in an online setting. Each student had 5 minutes in which they elaborated on their research problems, theoretical framework and proposed ideas. The virtual audience commented, shared insights and gave advice after every presentation. We would like to thank our colleagues for the supportive feedback, their constructive suggestions and the valuable sources they shared with the students.

We are also extremely proud of our postgraduate students. They were well prepared, proposed interesting topics for research and presented with ease - despite the pressure of doing this in front of all their lecturers. The members of SDL wish our students good luck on their research journeys!

SGL-studenteseminaar - 12 en 13 Maart

Dit is belangrik om
oor jou eie
navorsing te
praat.
-Prof Elsa
Mentz

Verlede week het die lede van SGL die nuwe meestersgraad- en PhD-studente amptelik in die SGL-gemeenskap van praktyk verwelkom. Studente het die geleentheid gehad om hulle navorsingsidees aan hulle studieleiers en ander SGL-lede in 'n aanlyn omgewing aan te bied. Elke student het 5 minute gehad om hulle navorsingsprobleme, teoretiese raamwerk en idees voor te lê. Die virtuele gehoor het ná elke aanbieding kommentaar gelewer, insigte gedeel en advies gegee. Ons bedank ons kollegas vir die ondersteunende terugvoer, opbouwende voorstelle en die waardevolle bronne wat hulle met die studente gedeel het.

Ons is ook baie trots op ons nagraadse studente. Hulle was goed voorbereid, het interessante navorsingsonderwerpe voorgelê en met gemak aangebied - ten spyte van die druk om dit voor al hulle dosente te doen. Die lede van SGL wens al ons studente voorspoed toe met die navorsingsreis wat voorlê!

HAPPY Birthday
to everyone
celebrating their
birthday this month.
